

IN SEARCH OF THE GOLDEN FLEECE

Linguistic and Cultural Interactions between Greece and the Ancient Near East

Friday 27th January 2017

St Hilda's College, Cowley Place, Oxford

- 2pm Registration & Welcome Reception
2.30pm Welcome address - M. Bianconi
2.45pm Homeric covenantal terminology and its Near Eastern forerunners - P. Dardano
3.30pm Where was Ahhiya? Who was Attarissiya? - S. Durnford
4.15pm Refreshments
4.45pm The literary evidence - from Hittite to Homer? - C. Metcalf
5.30pm Luwian tarpalli and Greek therapon: sacrifice and narrative between Anatolia and Greece - I. Rutherford
7.00pm Drink reception and Dinner

ERTEGUN

GRADUATE
SCHOLARSHIP
PROGRAMME
IN THE HUMANITIES

Saturday 28th January 2017

Ertegun House, 37a St Giles', Oxford

- 10.30am Refreshments
11.00am Language Contact between Lydian and Greek - N. Oettinger
11.45pm Gods of the Lydians, Greco-Lydian Contact and the Problem of Lydian Ethno-Linguistic Identity - R. Oreshko
12.30pm Anatolian and Greek: languages in contact or common inheritance - J.L. García Ramón
1.15pm Lunch
2.30pm Trends in writing and literacy: Greece and Phrygia, Cyprus and Phoenicia - P. Steele
3.15pm Signs and Seals. Early writing and administrative practices in the Aegean and Anatolia - W. Waal
4.00pm Refreshments
4.30pm The linguistic Landscape of North West Anatolia in pre-Roman times - A. Kloekhorst
5.15pm A Possible New Greco-Carian Contact Phenomenon - H.C. Melchert

Registration is required:

<https://tinyurl.com/h445ezt>

For info: michele.bianconi@ling-phil.ox.ac.uk